Thank you for joining CHS PTSA! Your donation funds annual teacher Mini-Grants, senior scholarships, the Student Directory, and many more programs and services which benefit CHS students and parents, teachers and staff. Thanks too for providing contact information which allows PTSA to keep you informed about important school issues throughout the year via Emails and via our monthly Knightly News. We value members' privacy and do not share information with anyone outside the school community. Please note: the information here does not update the school's database which is the source of information for the Student Directory. To ensure your listing appears accurately in this year's directory, please visit the school data clerk.

Membership opportunities are detailed below. Remember—ours is a Parent Teacher Student Association. Please consider a student membership for each of your CHS students as well as memberships for parents/guardians!
